Keeping Your Child Safe in Sport

Previously known as Parents in Sport Week, the NSPCC is delighted to announce that this year's Keeping Your Child Safe in Sport Week is taking place on 3rd to 9th October 2022.

This is our annual awareness campaign helping parents to keep their children safe in sport, supported by the NSPCC's Child Protection in Sport Unit (CPSU).

Child abuse and neglect can only be tackled if we all play our part, whether that's at home, at school or in sport settings. That's why we need your help to promote the campaign and the advice for parents and carers to keep children safe on and off the pitch.

Help us to promote Keeping Your Child Safe in Sport Week

If you can help us promote the campaign and advice to parents throughout the year, please contact Mitch.Price@NSPCC.org.uk
